sulla creazione di un Tribunale Internazionale dell'Ambiente presso l'ONU

RECOGNITIONS

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

A) Informed of the conclusions of the International Congress held at the Accademia dei Lincei (Rome, 1989) "For the Creation of an International Court of the Environment within the United Nations", including the proposal for a universal Convention on the Environment" as well as the creation of an International High Authority for the Environment and a Court accessible to individuals and associations;

B) informed also of the campaign that was taking place in this regard with wide and highly qualified international adhesion which resulted in the International Conference held in Florence (10- 12 May 1991);

C) considering the level reached in the environmental crisis on the entire planet and the catastrophic risks which, because of neglect, greed, short-sightedness and violence can be put down to human action or failure to act, continue to threaten the biosphere and demand that every attempt be made to banish serious disturbances to the world environmental order;

1. associates itself to the international campaign for the institution of an International Court of the Environment at the U.N. and the Universal Convention on the Environment;

2. calls for decisive steps towards these objectives during the 2° U.N. Assembly on the Environment (Brazil, 1992);

3. asks the European Community and its bodies - in particular, the Council and the Commission - to work towards the fulfillment of these objectives and to refer to Parliament, which declares to be ready to cooperate to this end.
